

Dragos Stefanescu, CFA, MBA

Portfolio Manager

Dragos has an MBA from University of British Columbia and is a CFA charter member. His investment methodology is in alignment with the Portland Difference. Dragos brings a plethora of wealth management experience including 16 years with the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan where he held various positions, the last of which was Director, Global Equities. He also holds an advisory role in a technology and telecom focused European private equity fund.

Dragos has in-depth knowledge of global technology, telecom services and capital goods/industrial sectors and extensive experience investing in North America, emerging markets, Japan and Europe.